

PRESS RELEASE

PCTI Students Reap Knowledge at NJFEA Convention

Wayne, NJ – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – On Friday, October 25th, members of Passaic County Technical Institute’s (PCTI) School of Education and Human Services attended the 2013 New Jersey Future Educators Association (NJFEA) Conference at William Paterson University in Wayne, NJ. All students in attendance got involved in a variety of teacher-related workshops. They also participated in mini-college courses!

Students were joined by Instructors Ms. Stephanie Wendolowski and Mrs. Peggy DeMaio. The event gave members of the School of Education and Human Services an opportunity to expand their knowledge in the field and provided pre-professional networking opportunities to engage and interact with peers who share similar career goals.

Photo Caption: PCTI students of the School of Education and Human Services gather at the annual NJFEA Conference held at William Paterson University.