PCTI Hosts Colgate Van, for “Bright Smiles, Bright Futures”

Wayne, NJ – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – Passaic County Technical Institute (PCTI) recently hosted the Colgate Van and invited children of the Head Start preschool program to explore the mobile unit that boasts the benefits of excellent oral hygiene. Here they received screenings and proceeded to visit with classes of PCTI’s Dental Assisting students. The children were later sent home with dental report cards and oral kits that included a toothbrush and brushing chart.

Volunteer Dental Assistant & PCTI alumna Ashley Tosado (Paterson) screens Dental Assisting student Pamela Bashkanji (Clifton), and is joined by her classmates Samantha Vitale (Haskell), and Luisandra Lugo (Paterson).
