PCTI Dance Student Selected for Governor’s Award

Wayne, NJ – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – Passaic County Technical Institute (PCTI) junior and member of the School of Performing Arts program, TaTyana Williams, has been selected to receive the highly coveted Student Award for Artistic Excellence in Dance – one of the Governor’s Awards for outstanding achievements in the arts.

She was one of four members of PCTI’s chapter of the NHSDA nominated by Instructors Jennifer Ackerman and Cassandra Roberts for the NDEO Artistic Merit, Leadership, and Academic Achievement Award. Applicants were rated based on the strength of the technical skill/artistic merit, leadership, answers to essay questions, GPA, recommendation letters, and their resume.

The committee reviewed many talented dancers from across New Jersey who demonstrated both technical and artistic excellence in their field. TaTyana was one of two dancers who was been chosen to receive this prestigious award. She will accept the honor at the Governor’s Arts Awards Ceremony on Wednesday May 27th in Trenton.

Passaic County Technical Institute student, TaTyana Williams, (Paterson) has been selected to receive the Governor's Award for Artistic Excellence in Dance.
