PCTI Welcomes March of Dimes Ambassador Family

Wayne, NJ – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE –Students of Passaic County Technical Institute gathered in the school’s auditorium to welcome this year’s March of Dimes Ambassador Family, the Torres-Castrodads from Puerto Rico. Clubs at PCTI regularly raise donations for the March of Dimes, but meeting with National Ambassador, Ismael Torres-Castrodad – a thirteen year old youth who was born prematurely, but is now healthy, thanks to the March of Dimes– underscored the true mission of the program and gave students an intimate look at how the organization positively impacts the families it serves. All in attendance were inspired by the March of Dimes message and pledged to make a real difference in the lives of others.
