

PRESS RELEASE

Sound Chasers Hit the Right Notes at News 12 Performance

Wayne, NJ – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – Passaic County Technical Institute’s (PCTI) brand new acapella group, “Sound Chasers,” is making a name for themselves in a very big way. The group was one of six local troupes selected to showcase their talents for News 12 New Jersey during the holiday season.

Co-directors Melissa Smithling and Christine Sullivan and their students were excited to showcase months of hard work. The set list of these up-and-coming stars included “Carol of the Bells” and “Seasons of Love.”

Students performed on December 16th at Count Basie Theatre in Red Bank. The performance was recorded and played during December 20th, 21st, 24th, and 25th.

Photo Caption: PCTI’s “Sound Chasers” perform at an event for News 12 New Jersey during the holiday season.