

PCTI Makes the Grade: Ranked #1 in w!se

Wayne, NJ – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE –The w!se (Working in Support of Education) Financial Literacy Certification program has named Passaic County Technical Institute (PCTI) as the top high school in the nation! The award comes in light of exemplary results on the program’s Financial Literacy Certification, which proves that the Wayne institution is actively educating the youths of tomorrow!

The goal of this not-for-profit NYC-based educational program is to shine a spotlight on the importance of personal finance education and to prepare students for the world after high school.

Congratulations to Passaic County Technical Institute on their amazing accomplishment!

Photo Caption: Students Fahima Begum (Paterson) and Parth Patel (Clifton) celebrate PCTI’s fantastic top rank in the w!se Financial Literacy Certification Program.